Leader: Out of the depths we cry to you, O Lord.

People: Lord, hear our voices and be attentive to our prayers.

Leader: By your grace, remove our anxieties and fears;

People: Help us to be released from their chains, unbind them and let them go.

Leader: Grant us the peace of your presence; show us what your love can do.

People: Help us to believe in you so that we may live and never die.

Leader: We thank you, O Lord, having heard our prayers.

All: Enable us to trust in you and thus to see your glory; through Jesus Christ, the resurrection and the life, as we worship this day.

INVOCATION

+*HYMN 39                      Great Is Thy Faithfulness

**PRAYER OF CONFESSION: (in unison)* O Lord, if you held our sin against us, who could live, who could stand? We seem to have more faith in death than hope in your promise of life. We seek peace through war and find security in weapons. We abandon the hungry, sick, and dying. And even so, you love us; still there is forgiveness with you. Therefore, we worship you, for you alone, O Lord, can save us from death and redeem us from our sin. Hear now our silent prayers.....

SCRIPTURE LESSONS

Save me, O God, for the waters have come up to my neck. I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold; I have come into deep waters, and the flood sweeps over me. I am weary with my crying; my throat is parched. My eyes grow dim with waiting for my God.

(Psalm 69:1-3)

You know the insults I receive, and my shame and dishonor; my foes are all known to you. Insults have broken my heart, so that I am in despair. I looked for pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none. They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink. (Psalm 69:19-21)

After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture), "I am thirsty." A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth.

(John 19:28-29)

Quote of the week...."I would rather walk with God in the dark than go alone in the light." (Mary Gardiner Brainard)
