

WELCOME! Glade Spring Presbyterian Church endeavors to provide a sanctuary of joy, charity and fellowship in which all feel invited to participate and worship. Whether a member, friend or visitor of Old Glade, each individual is valued and respected as a child of God and as an essential part of the body of Christ. As a whole we, the congregation, seek to grow spiritually, to nurture each other, to respond to the needs of the less fortunate and to serve and praise God. You are welcome here today and year round.

People: And also with you.

CHIMING OF THE HOUR

CHORAL INTROIT

CALL TO WORSHIP: (read responsively)

Leader: Sing to God a new song, for God has done marvelous things.

People: All the ends of the earth have seen the victory of our God.

Leader: Make a joyful noise to the Lord! Break forth into joyful song and sing praises.

All: God judges the world with righteousness. Let the earth resound with the praise of God!

INVOCATION

+*HYMN 22 (sampler) God, Reveal Your Presence

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION: (in unison) God of Grace and Glory, we seek Your mercy for our human weakness. We are driven by doubt, lonely because of suspicions, yet hungry for faith; the mingling of saint and sinner. We neglect to do the obvious good, and find ourselves doing the very things we hate. We believe; help our unbelief. Though we confess our faith with our lips, we fail to show it in our lives. Forgive and strengthen us, with Christ's graceful yet powerful spirit. Hear us as we pray.....

After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the LORD. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: "O LORD of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head." As she continued praying before the LORD, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. (I Samuel 1:9-13)

They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the LORD; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the LORD." (I Samuel 1:19b-20)

Samuel was ministering before the LORD, a boy wearing a linen ephod. His mother used to make for him a little robe and take it to him each year, when she went up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice. Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, and say, "May the LORD repay you with children by this woman for the gift that she made to the LORD"; and then they would return to their home. (I Samuel 2:18-20)

I am grateful to God—whom I worship with a clear conscience, as my ancestors did—when I remember you constantly in my prayers night and day. Recalling your tears, I long to see you so that I may be filled with joy. I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. And how from childhood you have known the sacred writings that are able to instruct you for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.

(II Timothy 1:3-5, 15)
