

THE BIRD'S NEST

A time to sow and a time to reap are familiar words that come to us from the book of wisdom in the Bible known as Ecclesiastes. They are, among others, comparing opposites which tell us that there are specific times in our lives and in the world that call upon a variety of responses in times that are changing. Fall is a time in which changes take place from the falling of the leaves, the morning frosts, the need to turn our clocks back and preparations for the coming winter.

As this is true in scripture and in the seasons, it is also true of us as individuals and as a church. On a personal note, we have seen new friends and new life within our families as well as illness and earthly loss of loved ones. So we seek to find ways of rejoicing in the new life around us, but at the same time seek God's comfort to sustain us in the years ahead. As a church whose membership, mission and ministry is changing, we also see that there are both difficulties and challenges which have great promise for our future. When we hear these words of the "preacher" they ring true to us because we go through so many emotions as God's children and His body on earth, the church of Jesus Christ. Let us unashamedly go forward with the guidance of the Holy Spirit as we seek our way with the opportunities which present themselves to us in this season of change. Let us commit ourselves to all be one in wanting to follow God's will. If we do, we will see the good arise and people pull together for the purpose of providing worship, mission, and fellowship for our beloved congregation at Old Glade for many years to come. We shall see this no matter the changes the seasons bring. Let us do so always with faith, hope, and love.

It is my wish for all of you that you will find excitement and anticipation of what is to come in God's plan for Old Glade. For with all of us pulling together, we will be sowing for future generations preparing to expand the ministries of this congregation for years to come. So as we miss, yet praise God for those who led this church in years past, let us resolve to work to continue to serve Christ in serving others.

Tim

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and time to dance; a time to throw away stones, and time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek and a time to lose, a time to keep and a time to throw away; a time to reap and a time to sow." (Ecclesiastes 3:1,4-7a)

God called home our dearly beloved John Robinson on Monday, November 4th. John will be truly missed by all of us who knew and loved him. John served his Lord here at Old Glade in many capacities – elder, trustee, deacon and trustee of Cemetery– but most of all as a true example of Christian love, care and compassion for all those he met along life's way. Please remember Peggy, Trish, Jay, Joe and the entire family and his many friends in your thoughts and prayers.

What Is Your Smile Worth?

(Anonymous)

It costs nothing, yet creates much.

It enriches those who receive it without impoverishing those who give.

It happens in a flash and the memory of it sometimes lasts forever.

No one is so wealthy that they can get along without it, and none is so poor that they are not enriched by its benefits.

It creates happiness in the home, fosters goodwill in business and is the countersign of friends.

It is rest to the weary, daylight to the discouraged, sunshine to the sad and nature's best antidote for trouble.

And if in the hurry and rush of the day, you meet someone who is too weary to give you a smile, leave one of yours.

For no one needs a smile so much as those who have none to give!

Glory to God: The Presbyterian Hymnal-Bookplates

The new hymnal, Glory to God: The Presbyterian Hymnal, will arrive in late October or early November. The hymnals have already been purchased. Even though the hymnals are paid for, the Worship Committee wanted to give you, the congregation, an opportunity to purchase a bookplate to place in the hymnals in honor of or in memory of someone. The cost of each bookplate will be $10 (the original cost of each hymnal). All of the money from sale of bookplates will go to the Outreach Committee's fund for local missions. Order forms will be in the bulletin in the coming weeks as well as in this newsletter. Please make checks payable to Glade Spring Presbyterian Church. On the memo, put hymnal. There were 200 hymnals ordered, so get your bookplate orders in quickly. Turn in order forms and money to the church office.
